Sharon, CT 06069

I have audited the accompanying statement of financial position of Tri-State Public Communications, Inc. as of December 31, 2018 and 2017 and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit.

I conducted my audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statements' presentation. Note A – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Description of Programs

Tri-State Public Communications, Inc. (“Tri-State”) is a local not-for-profit organization whose purpose is to improve the quality of life in Northwest Connecticut communities through noncommercial, educational, informational and entertaining television and radio programs that are produced for and by residents of Northwest Connecticut. For the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, Tri-State provided television and radio broadcasts of daily news and information programs, as well as local weather alerts, sports and school activities and local government meetings.

Basis of Presentation

Financial statement presentation follows the recommendations of the Financial Accounting Standards Board in its Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 117, Financial Statements for Not-for-Profit Organizations. Under SFAS No. 117, Tri-State is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets and permanently restricted net assets.

Contributions and Promises to Give

Tri-State follows the recommendations of the Financial Accounting Standards Board in its SFAS No. 11, Accounting for Contributions Received and Contributions Made. Under SFAS No. 116, contributions received are reported as unrestricted, temporarily restricted or permanently restricted support, depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions.

Contributions as recognized when a donor makes a promise to give to Tri-State that is, in substance, unconditional. Contributions that are restricted by the donor are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets if the restrictions expire or are met in the fiscal year in which the contributions are recognized. All other donor-restricted contributions are reported as increases in temporarily restricted or permanently restricted net assets depending on the nature of the restrictions. When a restriction expires, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets.

As of December 31, 2018 and 2017, Tri-State had no temporarily or permanently restricted net assets.

Note A – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies- continued

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reports amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the Statement of Cash Flows, Tri-State considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Income Taxes

Tri-State is exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, Tri-State qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A) and has been classified as an organization that is not a private foundation under Section 509(a)(2).

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost or, if donated, at the approximate fair value at the date of donation. Assets donated with explicit restrictions regarding their use and contribution of cash that are restricted by donors to acquire property and equipment are reported as restricted support. Absent donor stipulations regarding how long these donated assets must be maintained, Tri-State reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired assets are placed in service as instructed by the donor. Tri-State reclassifies temporarily restricted net assets to unrestricted net assets at that time. Depreciation is provided over the estimated useful lives of the assets ranging from five to twenty five years using straight line methods.
